

Live, Local & International

A Celebration Reading for the New Zealand Electronic Poetry Centre (nzepc)
at the University of Auckland

Sunday 14 October at 6 pm, Old Government House, City Campus.
Cash bar, gold coin koha.

An evening of vibrant performances reflecting all aspects of the university's recently established nzepc.
www.nzepc.auckland.ac.nz

FEATURING

Witi Ihimaera, Don McGlashan, Candy Ho, Kamla Mahony and Sandor Lau, Greville Texidor's Lorca translations performed by Walescka Pino-Ojeda and Michele Leggott. Texts by Len Lye and Kendrick Smithyman presented by Roger Horrocks and Peter Simpson.

GUEST POET YANG LIAN

Famed 'misty poet' of post cultural revolution China, Yang Lian will read from work written during his time exiled in New Zealand after the events of Tian'anmen Square.
Translations performed by Murray Edmond.

This is an nzepc event sponsored by the University of Auckland. Contributing sections include the School of Asian Studies, the School of European Literature and Languages, the English Department, Auckland University Press, the University Library, the Centre for Continuing Education and the Faculty of Arts.

